Ignition is an intensive 5½-day education program for aspiring entrepreneurs, academics and corporate innovators to trial and prepare their business ideas for the commercial environment.

Ignition is open to anyone with a business idea, research project or early stage business venture that could become a high growth business. Application from new and aspiring entrepreneurs with limited experience of starting a business are encouraged to apply. Passion and ambition to take ideas forward and 'make it happen' are highly important attributes for success at Ignition.

Applicants must be prepared to commit one full week (1.30pm Sunday 25th to 9pm Friday 30 August, 2019) of their time to an intensive and results-focused program. Fluency in spoken and written English is essential.

Sponsorship applications are judged on their individual merit based on the following eligibility criteria:

- The applicant is currently a UWA student or staff
- The novelty of your business, idea or invention
- The market potential and uniqueness of your proposal
- The applicant is willing to assign IP rights to UWA and commercialise in line with UWA's IP policy

Award of sponsorship places are made based on the written information provided in the application form.
